

Collection Reflections : Special Finishes for Metal Architecture

Collection Reflections

Tomorrow's colors today... in Architecture.

Specifying Collection Reflections means your design will be both contemporary and long-lasting, keeping its stylish visage for many years to come. The finishes shown on this card are created with AkzoNobel's Interpon D2525 technology, a super durable coating system with a durability track record since 1991. Interpon D2525 is designed to meet the higher weathering requirements of the leading European industry specifications Qualicoat Class 2, GSB Master and US standard AAMA 2604-05, ensuring a longer life for the finish.

Timeless Authenticity

Redefine the way people think about the places where they want to live and work, avoiding the increasingly virtual and abstract everyday way of life.
